Under the guidance of Dr. Rosetta Williams, CEO of Dalmia Vidya Mandir schools, a comprehensive 60-hour training session plan has been integrated into all Dalmia Vidya Mandir schools for teachers. It is mandatory for all heads to ensure that staff members receive one hour of training on a regular basis, with the goal of completing the 60-hour target by December 2023, covering 60 different topics based on the new trends of CBSE and NEP 2020. The training aims to make teachers aware of CBSE rules and regulations, as well as new trends in teaching methodology, as a step towards transformation and preparing students for the future advanced world. Upon completion of the training, feedback from all teachers, along with their signatures, is collected to ensure the success of the training initiative

Under the leadership of Dr. Rosetta Williams, CEO-DVM, offline training sessions on discipline were conducted at Dalmia Vidya Mandir in Chirawa, as well as at Dalmia Vidya Mandir in Thangskai and Dalmiapuram of Discipline, led by the respective heads of the schools. These sessions were followed by the commencement of online training via Zoom, starting on August 23, 2023.

Felicitation of Rishu Kokcha

Dalmia Vidya Mandir, Chirawa held a special morning assembly on August 30th, 2023 to honor Mr. Rishu Kokcha, an alumnus of the Dalmia Group of Schools. The school recognized Mr. Kokcha's remarkable accomplishments and efforts in his short career, including scaling numerous mountain peaks across the nation. The school is proud to announce that Mr. Kokcha's next endeavor will be to conquer Mount Everest, the tallest peak in the world.
