Dalmia Vidya Mandir, Kadapa SOP on Assembly Implementation

Dalmia Vidya Mandir is a renowned chain of schools that has been providing quality education to students for several years. The schools under this chain have implemented the assembly guidelines set by the promoter SOP, which require all morning prayers to be conducted in Hindi and Sanskrit from the book Mandakini. The decision to conduct morning prayers in Hindi and Sanskrit is in line with the school's philosophy of promoting Indian culture and heritage. The book Mandakini is a collection of hymns and prayers that are considered sacred in Hinduism. By reciting these prayers, students are not only learning about their culture but also imbibing values such as discipline, respect, and gratitude. The implementation of these guidelines has been well-received by parents and students alike. Many parents have expressed their appreciation for the school's efforts to promote Indian culture and values. Students, on the other hand, have found the morning prayers to be a calming and meditative experience that helps them start their day on a positive note.
