Whole-time directors seen to succeed Kotak at bank

Manian, Ekambaram Key Internal Contenders | Interim CEO Gupta Ineligible Because Of RBI's Cap On Tenure

VETERANS IN RACE

Manian - Currently, whole-time director-in-charge of Kotak Bank, Manian, was seen as key internal contender to succeed Uday Kotak. The former second-in-command, Ekambaram, who has taken over as interim CEO, is ineligible because of RBI's cap on tenure of the post of MD and CEO. Uday Kotak announced that he is stepping down as MD & CEO of the bank in favour of Manian. Analysts expect the board to have named an interim CEO to run the bank, besides being a leading institution, as also holding entry for many other businesses, including life & general insurance and asset management. The internal candidates, Manian and Ekambaram, Manian, and his son, Manian, are all around 60 years old. This may be a disadvantage as RBI has permitted several to plan CEO succession and...

From Himangshu Baruah on 22nd Nov, 2018

Hi Sahil how are you bro. I saw that you are studying in UK. Do you get time to hangout and also how is their teaching faculty. I wanna do photography and film-making.

From SAHIL PERIWAL on 22nd Nov, 2018

Hi Himanshu !! I'm doing good and hope you doing good too. It's really exciting to meet different people everyday. I have a few friends doing theatre and photography and by what they tell me its seems that the teaching is good. Cause they're more practical aspects and group assignments(presentations, videos and projects) which count for your final exams . GO FOR IT!! All the best and feel free to contact me for any queries. Cheers!!!
